

CABIN FEVER
ADULT WINTER
READING PROGRAM

- WHO: * Any adult (18 or older) living in the Fairbanks area
- WHAT: * A winter reading program for adults (similar to Summer Reading Programs for children)
* NO registration required—just fill out a form for each book read
* NO reading requirements—you choose your pace; you may read or listen to books
* Each “book review” form is an entry for prize drawings and may be turned in at any participating library
* Prize drawings at each library on January 29, February 12, February 26, and March 12
* Grand Prize drawing on March 19 at Noel Wien Library: $100 gift certificate to winner’s favorite local bookstore plus a prize from each sponsoring library
* Book reviews (minus personal information) will be displayed at the libraries to give other folks ideas about more good things to read
- WHEN: * January 15 to March 15, 2010
- WHERE: * Noel Wien Library, FNSB Public Library * Library Media Services, FNSB SD
* North Pole Branch Library, FNSB Public Library * Eielson Base Library
* Bookmobile, FNSB Public Library * Mather Library, Geophysical Institute
- WHY: * Relieve your Cabin Fever by “visiting” other people, places, worlds and times
* Enjoy sharing good reads with each other by submitting (very short) “book reviews”
* Enter drawings for prizes and bookstore gift certificates
* HAVE FUN
- HOW: * Read or listen to any number of books
* Fill out a form for EACH book read or listened to
-Write a short book review on the top part. This is for sharing with other readers.
-The bottom part is an entry for the next biweekly prize drawing at that library AND for the grand prize drawing on March 19, 2010 at Noel Wien Library
* Turn in the form at ANY participating library
